

The text below is about the account payable process. It begins when you file a copy for internal records.
When filing a copy for internal records is completed, creating a receiving report needs to be done.
When creating a receiving report is completed, gathering the vendors invoice should be done.
When gathering the vendors invoice is completed, storing in paid invoice file needs to be done.
The process is now completed.