

The following description is about the account payable process. It begins when you send to the vendor accounting department.

After sending to the vendor accounting department, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, gathering the receiving report should be done.

Once gathering the receiving report occurs, checking dates to avoid penalty charges should be done.

The process is now completed.