

The text below is about the account payable process. It begins when you enter purchase order details.

When entering purchase order details is completed, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, you need to gather the receiving report.

After gathering the receiving report, you need to stamp all documents.

The process is now completed.