

The text below is about the account payable process. It starts with sending to the vendor accounting department.

After sending to the vendor accounting department, you need to create a receiving report.

When creating a receiving report is completed, gathering the vendors invoice needs to be done.

When gathering the vendors invoice is completed, you need to stamp all documents.

The process is now completed.