

The text below is about the account payable process. It starts with sending to the vendor accounting department.

When sending to the vendor accounting department is completed, you need to create a receiving report.

When creating a receiving report is completed, you need to double check a three-way match.

After doubling check a three-way match, you need to schedule the payment.

The process is now completed.