

The following description is about the account payable process. It starts with sending to the receiving department.

After sending to the receiving department, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, gathering the vendors invoice should be done.

After gathering the vendors invoice, one or more of the following paths should be executed: scheduling the payment, storing in paid invoice file.

The process is now completed.