

The text below is about the account payable process. It starts with entering purchase order details.

Once entering purchase order details occurs, creating a receiving report should be done.

When creating a receiving report is completed, one or more of the following paths should be executed: reporting errors to relevant team member, gathering the vendors invoice, confirming all documents have been amended.

After that, checking dates to avoid penalty charges should be done.

The process is now completed.