

The following text is about the account payable process. It begins when you file a copy for internal records.

After filing a copy for internal records, you need to create a receiving report.

After creating a receiving report, doubling check a three-way match should be done.

When doubling check a three-way match is completed, you need to check dates to avoid penalty charges.

The process is now completed.