

The following text is about the account payable process. It starts with filing a copy for internal records.

When filing a copy for internal records is completed, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, you need to confirm all documents have been amended.

When confirming all documents have been amended is completed, you need to schedule the payment.

The process is now completed.