

The text below is about the account payable process. It begins when you send to the receiving department.

Once sending to the receiving department occurs, you need to create a receiving report.

When creating a receiving report is completed, one or more of the following paths should be executed: reporting errors to relevant team member, doubling check a three-way match.

Then, one or more of the following paths should be executed: scheduling the payment, checking dates to avoid penalty charges.

After checking dates to avoid penalty charges, one or more of the following paths should be executed: creating voucher for the documents, stamping all documents.

The process is now completed.
