

The following text is about the account payable process. It begins when you enter purchase order details.

When entering purchase order details is completed, you need to create a receiving report.

Once creating a receiving report occurs, you need to double check a three-way match.

After doubling check a three-way match, one or more of the following paths should be executed: storing in paid invoice file, creating voucher for the documents.

The process is now completed.