

The following description is about the account payable process. It starts with filing a copy for internal records.

After filing a copy for internal records, creating a receiving report should be done.

When creating a receiving report is completed, you need to confirm all documents have been amended.

Once confirming all documents have been amended occurs, the process is split into 2 parallel branches: creating voucher for the documents and checking dates to avoid penalty charges.

The process is now completed.