

The above text is about the Account payable process, which starts with entering the order details.

Once the details of the purchase order are entered, the creation of a receipt report should be done.

When a receiving report is created, the process is split into 2 parallel branches : obtaining the vendors invoice and confirming all documents have been amended.

Once all pre-tasks are executed, stamping should be done for all documents.

The process is now complete.