

The following description is about the account payable process, which starts with filing a copy of the internal records.

Once a copy for internal records is filed, a receiving report has to be created.

Once a receiving report is created, the vendor invoice should be collected.

Once the vendor invoice gathering begins the next task should be stamping all documents and storing in the paid invoice file, they should be done in parallel.

The process is now completed.