

The text below is about the payment process which starts with sending to the vendor account department.
When sending to the vendor accounts department is completed, the creating of a receiving report needs to be done.
Once a Receiving Report occurs, the Double check should create a three-way match.
After double check a three-way match, you need to keep payed invoice file in the system.
The process is now completed.