

The below text is about the Account payable process. It begins with a copy of the internal record being filed.

When a copy of the internal record is completed, a receipt report should be created.

After creating a receiving report a three-way match should be doubled.

Once the doubling check occurs, a three-way match should be done stamping all documents.

The process is now concluded.