

The following text is about the payor process and starts with the transmission to the vendor accounting department.

Once the sending to the vendor accounting department occurs, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, one or more of the following paths should be executed: verifying that all documents have been amended and collecting the invoice of vendors.

Afterwards, storing should be done in the paid invoice file.

The process is now complete.