

The following is about the Account payable process, which starts when you submit a copy for internal records.

When a copy of internal records is completed, you should create a Receiving Report

When creating a receipt report is completed, the Vendors should receive invoices.

When the invoice with vendors is completed, the payment should be scheduled.

The process is now complete.