

The following description is about the payment process and starts with filing a copy for internal records.

After completing a copy for internal records, the creating should be done of a receiving report.

Once a receipt report is created, it needs to be reported to the relevant team member.

When the reports to a relevant team member are completed, you must check dates to avoid penalties.

The process is completed now.