

The following text is about the account payable process and starts with filing a copy for internal records.

Once a copy of the record is filed for internal records, you need to create a receiving report.

When the creation of the Receiving report is completed, one or more of the following paths should be executed: confirming that all documents have been changed, doubling check a three-way match, gathering the Receiving Report

After doubling a three-way match, a timely report of errors is to be made to the relevant team member.

Then one or more of the following paths should be executed: creating vouchers for the documents, stamping all documents.

The process is now complete.
