

The following text is about the accounts payable process that begins when you enter your order details.

When a purchase order payment is completed, you need to create a receipt report.

Once a receiving report is created, you need to double check a three-way match.

After doubling a three-way match, one or more of the following paths should be executed : storing in a paid invoice file and creating voucher for the documents.

The process is now complete.