

The following description is about the accounts payable process - it begins with filing a copy for internal records.

After filing a copy for internal records, a receiving report should be created.

When creating a receiving report is completed, you need to confirm that all documents have been modified.

Once the amended documents have confirmed, the process is split into 2 parallel branches: Creating a voucher for the documents and checking date to avoid penalty charges.

The process is now finished.