

The following text is about the account payable process, starting with the sending to the vendor accounting department.

Once a payment occurs to the vendor accounting department, a receiving report needs to be created.

After creating a receipt report, you need to gather the receiving report.

After gathering the receiving report, there is to be created a voucher for the documents.

The process is now complete.