

The text below is about the Account – Vendor – process which begins with the purchase order details.

Creating a receiving report should be done after entering purchase order details.

When the creation of a receiving report is done, a three-way match must be doubled.

Once a three-way match occurs, the process is split into three parallel branches : stamping all documents, creating a voucher for documents and storing in a paid invoice file.

The process is now done.