

The following is about the account payable process, which starts with filing a copy of internal documents.

Once a copy is prepared for internal records, a receiving report needs to be created.

After creating a receiving report, one or more of the following paths should be executed: notified of errors to the relevant team member, gathering the vendor invoice and double checking a three-way match.

Then the payment schedule must be done.

The process is now completed.