

The text below is about the account payable process and starts with receipt to the vendor accounting department.

When a submittal is completed to the vendor accounting department, you need to create a receiving report.

Once a receiving report appears, the gather the vendor's invoice needs to be done.

Once the vendor bill comes to a conclusion, you need to create a voucher for the documents.

The process is now finished.