

The text below is about the payment process. It starts when you enter your purchase order details.

When the entry of the Order Details is completed, a Receiving Report must be created.

After creating a receiving report, you have to gather the receiving report.

After gathering the receipt report, you need to stamp all documents.

The process is now completed.