

The text below is about the account payable process: it starts with sending to vendor accounting department.
When the processing of sending to the vendor accounting department is completed, you need to create a receipt report.
When a receiving report is completed you must check a three-way match twice.
After doubling a three-way match, you need to schedule the payment.
The process is now complete.