

The below text is about the invoice process, which begins when you enter the Order Details.

Once the purchase order details are entered, you must create a receipt report.

After the creation of a receiving report is completed, the process is divided into two parallel branches : doubling a three-way match and gathering the receiving report.

After all pre-tasks are done, stamping all documents needs to be done.

The process is now complete.