

The following text is about the Account payable process, which starts when you send it to the vendor account department.

A receipt report should be created after sending it to the vendor accounting department.

When a receiving report is created, you need to collect vendors invoices.

When the vendors invoice is collected, if payment schedule, the payment should be done.

The process is now finished.