

The text below is the process of payment to the account payable, which begins when you send to the vendor accounting department.

Creating a receipt report is needed to be done after sending to the vendor accounting department.

After creating a Receiving Report, the next task should be gathering the Receiving Report and verifying that all documents have been modified, they should be done in parallel.

Once all pre-tasks are executed, dates should be checked to avoid penalties.

The process is now complete.