

The following description is about the invoice process and commences when you send the senior accountant in your department.

After sending to the senior accountant in your department, creating a receiving report needs to be done.

After creating a receiving report, it needs to confirm that all documents have been modified.

Once confirming all documents are amended, you should stamp all documents.

The process is now completed.